Shannon Flegle, DVM

Everyone at JHOOKER Construction Services was nice to work with and respectful. I never felt "talked down" to, even though I did not understand all of the construction project and also that I am a woman. I rarely had to leave a message and would only wait a short time for a phone call back. The entire experience went well and I would highly recommend JHOOKER Construction Services to anyone building or remodeling.

Thank you,
